Share Your Love of Music With A Gift to Support CUSO

We go to the symphony to experience the transcendent power of magnificent music. Under the musical direction of Maestro Stephen Alltop, CUSO continues to earn high praise for the caliber of musical performance achieved by talented and dedicated professional musicians who live and work in our community.

CUSO programs are made possible entirely by patrons and donors who share our vision to bring the vibrancy of orchestral music to audiences of all ages. Each year, thousands of young students are connected to the joy of live orchestral music through CUSO Youth Concerts at Krannert Center, small ensemble performances presented free of charge in area schools, and youth music education scholarships.

Like orchestras throughout the country, only one third of our revenue comes from ticket sales. Including a gift with your subscription order directly supports CUSO performances and youth engagement programs. Each and every donation is important and enriches our community.

On behalf of CUSO Board of Directors, musicians, and staff, our warmest thanks for your generosity!
