

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Stephen Alltop, Music Director & Conductor

Champaign-Urbana Symphony Orchestra 2019 Youth Concerts

“The Carnival of the Animals”

Wednesday, April 17, 2019 • 9:30 am & 11:15 am

Thursday, April 18, 2019 • 9:30 am & 11:15 am

Join Music Director & Conductor Stephen Alltop and the Champaign-Urbana Symphony Orchestra for an interactive, educational concert in the Foellinger Great Hall at Krannert Center. Each concert is approximately 45 minutes. From fish to fossils, donkeys to kangaroos, The Carnival of the Animals by Camille Saint-Saëns turns the orchestra into a marvelous zoo! Enjoy this humorous musical suite and the fun ways these many creatures come to life in orchestral instruments.

Registration

Educators and schools may register to attend through the University of Illinois School of Music, beginning in September, 2018. For registration information, visit <https://music.illinois.edu/youth-concerts>. If you have any questions, please call Nancy Boaz at (217) 333-1580.

Educator's Guide

Participating teachers can download an Educator's Guide and audio files in Spring 2019 from the University of Illinois School of Music. The guide contains background information about the program including historical context, composers' biographies, the instruments of the orchestra, listening exercises, and more.

The CUSO Youth Concerts are produced by the Champaign-Urbana Symphony Orchestra, the University of Illinois School of Music Office of Public Engagement, and the Guild of the Champaign-Urbana Symphony Orchestra, and are sponsored in part by the City of Urbana Public Arts Commission, The Robeson Family Benefit Fund, and the Illinois Arts Council. The Champaign-Urbana Symphony Orchestra is the professional orchestra in residence at the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts.
